

The ProAssurance
Way

Our culture guides us

Whether you are a new colleague learning about the ProAssurance Way or a long-term team member seeking guidance on a challenging issue, thank you for your interest and commitment.

The ProAssurance Way, comprised of our mission, vision, core values, and commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion, is the foundation of our culture. It sets a high bar for expectations about what ProAssurance expects of our team members—and what you should expect from the Company.

We best support our mission of protecting others, when we achieve a common culture rooted in mutual respect. We have a genuine interest in the unique life experiences of each colleague and understand that these differences enable us to be collectively more successful. Our goal is to perpetuate an environment where people are able to bring their authentic self to work without fear of judgment—so they may fully contribute and are able to reach for extraordinary outcomes.

Your willingness to hear, understand, and include diverse perspectives, whether or not you ultimately agree, is at the heart of cultural competency; it will make a positive difference in your relationships with your colleagues and service to our customers.

Thank you for what you do each and every day—and for your commitment to making ProAssurance a better place.
